

Melvin Seek

October 12, 2010

Melvin Seek, 78, of Fort Collins, fell asleep in Jesus, on October 12, 2010. Mr. Seek was born in Rayville, MO, to William and Nora Seek. He married Marjorie McNeal in 1957, in North Platte, NE. They had three sons. The Seeks have lived in Fort Collins since 1969. They have been long-time members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Melvin is survived by his wife Marjorie; a son Steven of Northglenn; a son Mitchell of Littleton; four grandchildren; three brothers and one sister. Melvin was preceded in death by his son Todd of Loveland. A Memorial Service will be held at the Fort Collins Seventh-day Adventist Church, 502 E. Pitkin St., on Saturday, October 16, 2010, at 7:00 pm. A reception will follow at the Beebe Christian School, 821 W. Lake St. Memorial contributions for Christian education can be made to the Worthy Student Fund in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 Olive St., Fort Collins, CO 80524.

Tribute Wall

MD

“ The Officers and Staff of Thompson Valley EMS send their sincerest condolences to the Seek family on the loss of your husband and father.

Marvi Dolgener - October 22, 2010 at 12:00 AM