“ Merl was one you wouldn't forget . He lived to play music and share his talents. Soft spoken BUT firm. He will be missed but in a much better place.

“ His life will be celebrated in many way's by many people as long as anyone is alive to remember, He will be carried in many hearts for a long time to come, He will grace us with his presents and not be forgotten he made the world a better place and the world is poorer of his absence. Much Love and Prayers.. Elaine Romain..

“ I was fortunate to be able to see Dad in June when I came to Colorado for a visit to see him. He was a wonderful, talented Dad to the three of us sisters. We loved our parents sooooo much. Mom went to be with the Lord more than 20 years ago. So now they are together again. Love you Daddy!!!

“ We had the pleasure of knowing Merl on West 10th Street, Loveland, before he moved to a grandson's house. His machinist and woodworking skills were very impressive and he was such a sweetheart. He made violins! A very musical family. We got to know Judy a little bit and were impressed by her caring devotion to her father. I was just thinking about him this week. We extend our sympathy, Carolyn and Chuck

“ We would like to send our condolences to the family. We met Merl & Wilma through our business. Merl had me build his shop on Flemming drive in Loveland. From that time on we became very fond of both him and Wilma. They were very loving people who will be missed by many, including us.
