“ When I think of Mike Gleb, I think of a solid Christian. I met him 35 years ago as a newly saved Christian. He gave me a job at Coca-Cola and asked me to move in with him and his son, Butch. He mentored me in my Christian life and introduced me to the bus ministry. A fond memory is that we always enjoyed competing with each other on our bus routes. And, of course, Mike always beat me! As of today, I have been driving a church bus at Fairhaven Baptist Church for 27 years. It is all because of Mike's influence. Also, one thing I will never forget is when Mike approached me about fasting and praying for his dad's salvation. After seven days of fasting and praying, Mike's sent two church members to witness to his dad about being saved. His dad received Christ, and his life changed. And now as I think of Mike in heaven that when I am driving that church bus he is looking down and saying keep driving that bus.

“ My sincerest condolences to his Wife Janet and the rest of his family. I'm fortunate to have worked with Mike, he was such an excellent teacher and friend. He had a great sense of humor and was very helpful. I hope the video below is able to play, I spent a week working side by side with Mike in Wyoming and I really hoped to see a moose while I was there, well he tricked me pointing out this huge moose from a distance, too bad for me it was a statue! LOL we both laughed and he said he does that to everyone that rides with him. What a character! Here's some pics I took during my visit, I even got to meet Janet while I was there. Prayers up for comfort & strength during this time. Grateful for the lessons and the mentoring. God bless. 🙏
