“ Dear Mike,

this is by far one of the most hardest things I ever had to do in my life so far. Is to say goodbye to one of the most important people in my life.

First off I want to thank GOD for bringing you into my life 17 yrs ago. You have always been there for me when ever I needed you. no matter what happened you were always there. I will miss all the nights we would lay in bed watching a movie. How we used to play quarters. Im going to miss your laugh and smile. you knew every little thing about me. My hopes, dreams, and fears. even though we werent together as a couple, I know in my heart that you truly my soul mate. A soul mate can be alot of different meanings. You will forever be in my heart. Till we see eachother again. I LOVE YOU.

*LOVE ALWAYS AND FOREVER,
JAMIE*
