“ It is with the greatest regret that I write to share the sad news of Mike's passing. Mike was not just a cousin; he was a vibrant, adventurous soul who brought joy and laughter to everyone around him with his incredible sense of humor. His fantastic imagination and love for storytelling, especially those creative and humorous family tales, will always be cherished memories.

Mike had a profound fondness for family and possessed a kindred spirit that made him easy to love. He was caring, considerate, and someone who you could always count on. Among all the cousins, Mike was more like a brother to me than anyone else. His warmth, likability, and the genuine connection he formed with everyone he met made him truly special.

We will miss his stories, his laughter, and the unique spark he brought to our lives. May we find comfort in the beautiful memories we shared with him and carry his spirit with us in our hearts.

With deepest sympathy,

Ray Martinez
