

Nanci Brown

January 1, 2008

Nanci Lynn Brown, 59, from Fort Collins, passed away Jan. 1, 2008. She is survived by her mom, Gail Brown; brother, Kenny Brown; five children, Benjamin, Jodi, Jennie, Matthew and Joshua; and her eight grandchildren and counting. She achieved her lifelong dream to not only finish her undergraduate degree in Liberal Arts and Business, in 1996, but to graduate three years later with a master's in business administration. We are so proud of her determination. She will always be remembered for her endless years of love and devotion to her five children. The warmth of her home-cooked meals filled us with happiness. She used her extraordinary talents in knitting, sewing and crafting to bless her children and grandchildren with wonderful gifts and memories that will always be cherished. Thank you for being our daughter, sister, mom and grandma! You will never be far from our thoughts. We love and miss you! A funeral service will be at 11 a.m. today at Bohlender Funeral Chapel. Rabbi Dr. Larry Denmark will be officiating at the service. Friends may send condolences to the family at www.bohlenderfuneralchapel.com.
