Nancy had a tuff childhood life, but she learned through hard work she could accomplish her goals. She loved working in her yard and garden. She was an avid Broncos fan and loved football in general. You could always find her spending time with family and friends. She also loved working with the elderly at the nursing homes through her career as a nurse. The one thing that she spoiled herself with was getting her hair and nails done.

We take comfort in knowing that she's gone home to be with the Lord.
