March 23, 1997 - June 13, 2020

Natasha Marie Cordova, 23, of Fort Collins, CO passed away suddenly on June 13, 2020. Natasha was born on March 23, 1997 in Fort Collins, CO to Lydia Cordova and Joseph Tavaréz. Natasha grew up in and attended schools in Fort Collins and graduated from Centennial high school in 2015. She continued her education by attending classes at Front Range and CSU.

Natasha touched many lives with her contagious spirit and beautiful soul. She had many talents and hobbies but spending time with her friends and family was her biggest passion. Being the only girl and having 3 younger brothers Natasha loved to remind them that she was the toughest! She loved singing, dancing, wrestling and being carefree, wild and crazy with them. She loved them very much and they held a big part of her heart, she would do anything for them.

In 2017 Natasha was given her biggest blessing in life which was her daughter Penelope Merrill. Even though their time together was short their bond was unbreakable. Natasha loved Penelope more than anything and she was always amazed by how she created such a perfect beautiful little girl. Penelope always kept Natasha on her toes with her fearlessness and spunk. She loved being a mother and that by far was her biggest accomplishment in life.

When Natasha wasn't busy being a mother, daughter or a big sister she loved traveling, hiking, camping, riding motorcycles, swimming, kayaking, modeling and adding to her ever growing collection of tattoos.

Natasha loved life and meeting new people. She could always make any situation brighter with her beautiful smile and laugh. You couldn't help but to be in a good mood when you were in her presence. Natasha was a beautiful person inside and out and had the biggest and most vibrant heart. She had a very calming nature about her and all she wanted was to make everyone around her happy.

Natasha is survived by her daughter, Penelope; mother, Lydia Cordova; fathers, Joseph Tavarez and Dereck Garcia; brothers, Joseph Tavarez, Damien Garcia, Evan Garcia; sisters, Janessah Valdez, Kaylee Valdez. She is also leaving behind grandparents, several aunts, uncles and cousins. Even though her time her on earth was short her impact was huge she will be missed dearly by many. Always on our minds and forever in our hearts.
