“ Dear Mike and Page, It was with sorrow, and relief, that I read about your father's death. I know how difficult it was for you both to make those last decisions for Nick. I hope you all feel comfort with this last and greatest gift that you gave Nick. Passing away respectfully, surrounded by love, is what we all wished for and you made it happen. In sorrow, Lisa Zimmerman from PVH medical unit

“ It is with great sadness that I am sending my condolences to your family over the loss of your beloved father, father-in-law and grandfather. The deep love and concern you all had for Nick was beautiful to see, this was a man who knew he was truly loved and adored by all of you. I loved Nick's sense of humor and his charming ways; he was so much like my late father, I drew much comfort from that. Whenever he spoke of any of you it was with great pride and adoration. I hope you knew that all of us at Mackenzie Place adored your father!! I know I will never forget him and he will be in my heart always. Thank you for entrusting us with the day to day care of this remarkable man! I will miss him dearly. God Bless your family during this difficult time. With love and sympathy, Lorene Spare
