

Norman Z. Graham, Sr.

March 26, 1936 - November 12, 2012

Norman Z. Graham, Sr. passed away November 12, 2012 at Poudre Valley Hospital. His family members lovingly called him VJ. Norm came to Colorado at the age of 6 months from his birth place of Jay, Oklahoma. He loved family, friends, and the mountains where he spent most of his youth hunting, camping, and fishing. He leaves behind his wife of 56 years, Barbara, two sons, seven grandchildren, and six great grandchildren. He will be missed by all of us, but will never be forgotten. A Graveside Service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Friday at Highland Cemetery in Wellington.

“ I worked with Norm at ace hardware for a number a years. He always had something great to say each day and made sure to pay close attention to people. His calm and wise presence was a rarity in this world. He took me under his wing while i worked with him and taught me much more than plumbing knowledge. I am trully grateful for Norm and will miss him.

“ There’s no disappointment in Heaven, No weariness, sorrow or pain; No hearts that are bleeding and broken, No song with a minor refrain. The clouds of our earthly horizon Will never appear in the sky, For all will be sunshine and gladness, With never a sob or a sigh. I’m bound for that beautiful city, My Lord has prepared for His own; Where all the redeemed of all ages Sing “Glory!” around the white throne; What a joy that will be when my Savior I see, In that beautiful city of gold. We’ll never pay rent for our mansion, The taxes will never come due, We’ll never be hungry or thirsty, Nor languish in poverty there, For all the rich bounties of Heaven His sanctified children will share. There’ll never be crepe on the doorknob, No funeral train in the sky; No graves on the hillsides of glory, For there we shall nevermore die. The old will be young there forever, Transformed in a moment of time; Immortal we’ll stand in His likeness, The stars and the sun to outshine.
