

Oma Edith Harris

July 28, 1919 - March 8, 2013

Oma Edith Harris passed away on Friday, March 8, 2013 at the age of 94. She was born on July 28, 1918 in Gum Sulpher, Kentucky to Henry and Ellen Masters. She was raised in a loving home with six brothers and one sister, who have all preceded her in death. Oma is survived by her three children, Luther Harris Marno, Harold Harris, and Tammy Mooney Richard, all of Fort Collins; seven grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; and seven great, great grandchildren and her special friend Floyd Holsinger. She moved to Fort Collins with her family in 1943. Her husband, Earl, a retired fireman passed away in 1991. Oma retired from Teledyne in Fort Collins. She was so loving, generous, and kind and enjoyed having a good time. She loved visiting Las Vegas, playing bingo and fishing. She also loved cooking and traveling with family. Oma, who was always Nanny to her grandchildren, was loved deeply by her family and will be greatly missed. A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 16, 2013 at Bohlender Funeral Chapel. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Saint Volunteer Transportation @ 333W. Drake Rd. Suite 42, Ft. Collins, Co. 80526.

“ I used to drive Edith for SAINT, usually home from the Senior Center. She was a very sweet lady & I always enjoyed visiting with her. I met Floyd also & drove them both a few times before I stopped, about 2 1/2 yrs ago. I just wanted to let your family know that she was so nice & I know she will be missed!

“ To my dearest Aunties family, Like to let you's know, that Auntie always had a smile on her face, when I went to see her. I had just went to see her a couple months ago and we took a picture. Loved her very much. tried to see her when I could. Very sorry she is gone but she lived a long life and she is up there with my dad and all of her family. RIP God Bless you all.
