The church was filled with family and friends young and old, much to his delight. Oscar was a family man, a

“ *Your Dad was a special person. He never met anyone who was a stranger!
He played a special role in my life. He and Dorothy were my second Mom and Dad.
I shared many happy times doing things with the Land family. I was more often than not included in family activities.
Oscar and my Dad were special friends. They loved to visit and share sports and farming stories.
I am glad we shared his life.*

“ Oscar was such a great friend and comfort to our family. I remember since I was 5 years old being over Oscar and Dorothy's home outskirts of Timnath picking cherries and watching Dorothy make pies! And riding on a tractor and helping Oscar feed cows. I have so many happy memories - may Oscar forever rest in peace! Susan Anderson and Pat Jekel.
