

Parke D. Langholf

October 22, 1919 - August 6, 2014

Parke D. Langholf, 94, of Fort Collins, died August 6, 2014. Mrs. Langholf was born October 22, 1919 in Walden, Colorado to George and Harriet Dean. Parke married Ernest Langholf on November 25, 1937. Mrs. Langholf lived most of her life in North Park. She moved to Fort Collins in 1958. Parke was a rancher and secretary for North Park and the city of Fort Collins. Survivors include her son, Dale Langholf of Wellington; daughter, Candace Aquirre of Fort Collins; brother, Bob Dean of Gainesville, Florida; six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Preceding Parke in death are her parents, George and Harriet Dean. A private family service will be held.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ I was so sad to hear about Parkes passing. What a wonderful woman. She always told me stories of working with my Dad at the City. She said my Dad was very young when she met him and I know he thought a lot of your Mom. God Bless you all

Michele Batty Hanna - September 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM