

Pauline 'Bluebell' Hall

March 6, 2008

Pauline "Bluebell" Eleanora Hall, 90, of Greeley died March 6, 2008. Pauline was born Aug. 17, 1917, in Elbert. She married Perry Hall in 1933. They started their lives together in Greeley. Over the years, they lived in Arizona, Fort Collins, LaPorte and then back in Greeley. They were both devout Christians with the Fort Collins Seventh Day Adventists. Pauline enjoyed music, crocheting, baking, family time and homemaking in general Pauline is survived by her daughters, Deleta and husband, Ron Trueblood from Tucson, Ariz., and Ione Hall of Greeley; brothers, Harold Baber of Greeley, Glen Baber of Canyon City; and five grandchildren, Louise South Carolina, Janean and Randy Arizona, Tracy and Chris Colorado, eight great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Pauline was preceded in death by her beloved Perry Hall and her brothers, William "Cap" Baber and Raymond Baber. A funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive St., Fort Collins. Pastor Jim Himholm will officiate the service. Interment will follow at Resthaven Memory Gardens Cemetery. Friends may send condolences to the family at bohlenderfuneralchapel.com