“ In 1985 we were Chicago newlyweds striking out on a great adventure -- a new life together in the Rockies. We landed in a house next door to Andy and R.J. Cox. Though we were no relation, during our brief time as neighbors it felt like it. They were such warm and welcoming "ambassadors" of Fort Collins for us. Some people enter your life at certain moments, even if briefly, and remain in your heart forever. Thank you, RJ and Andy, for being our first Fort Collins angels. May God's peace be with you.
