“ Here's to the color that made everything shine And here's to the one with whom now it's all fine. Here's to the spark that kicked off our being. And here's to the gal who one day I'll be seeing. Life here won't be the same without you Rainbow, but we will do our best to keep the sun shining. You lived a full life and were the matriarch of an amazing family. I hope I can be as strong and courageous in my life as you were in yours. Thanks for the example you left us. Love you. Becca P.S. Whenever I see a 'dabber', I will always think of you.

“ Dearest Grandma Rainbow, Thank you for all the love and joy that you brought into my life with your wonderful sense of humor and spunky red headed personality. I treasure the memories of baseball tournaments in Maryland and site seeing at Harpers Ferry. You were such a devoted cheerleader at all my biggest high school cross country races. I will never forget how special it was to have you at my graduation from Wheaton. You never forgot a birthday and your cards and "dollars" were so heartfelt. I look forward to introducing you to the newest member of your family, our little Micah one day when we are reunited in heaven. I love you!

“ Rainbow was always so supportive of everything that each one of us grandkids did. Even when she had to sit through extreme heat in the East Coast, she was our biggest fan. We will all miss her support and kind heart in our lives, but we are so glad that we got to have a great grandma that was a big part of our lives. Not many people can say that they know their great grandparent, and I not only knew her but loved and enjoyed her.
