Dearest Mona ~ Thank you for all you added to our lives at work over the years. You comforted and consoled many of us during challenging times and always helped us keep the candle of hope, joy and perseverance burning bright. You always went beyond the call of duty to support us. You gifted us with your contagious laughter and heartwarming smiles. Your presence warmed up those cold and dreary days and you provided a cool and calming breeze on those days when we thought we might just melt. You fed our souls and tastebuds with the sweetest and most delicious peaches on earth. You demonstrated unconditional love and a passion for your family at home and your family at work. We were Blessed... Blessed to Walk Beside You ~ Our Dearest ~ Dearest Friend. You Will Forever Live in Our Hearts!

Dearest Mona - Your smile and laughter were infectious. You and I shared so much at work and away from work over the years! You held me up when I lost both my parents. You always made such great items for our potlucks at work. A wonderful baker and cook. You were a huge support to your beloved, Larry, a few years ago when he had health issues. Like Gustavo said it best above, you were a gift of a friend to all that knew you. I am glad we got to speak in April and every so often since I left Horizon and moved back to MN and you were never worried about yourself, just others. You shared all of Terri's operations and successes in Colorado, you were one of her biggest supports. You are forever in my Heart, my dear friend!!! Blessed to have known you and be your friend!

“ I don't have enough fingers to count all the meals shared with the Bivens family. Delicious meals made with loving care. Warm, welcome smiles and hugs!! Mona a treasure to remember. Pitched right in, didn't hold back. Oh, the dishes, pots and pans washed and dried with good conversation, and loving smiles. Special times with a chosen family!!
