Raymond M. (SHORT) Jones left his earthly home May 23, 2020 in the presence of his wife, Carolyn Bernhardt-Jones, daughters Renee Jones and Susie Jones and son, Daniel Raymond Jones. He is also survived by his oldest brother, Hubert Jones of Holyoke, Colorado. Short was the youngest of six sons born to Hubert Dale Jones Sr. and Evelyn Elizabeth Cronkhite Jones of Oklahoma.

Short will be deeply missed by his step daughter, Kelly Walsh (Pat) and step sons, Brian Bernhardt (Eve) and David Bernhardt (Gena) and by his loving grandsons, Owen Walsh, Nygel Mikkelson Jones and Ian Jones (Kayla), and William Bernhardt, and granddaughters, Brigit Walsh, Faline Bernhardt and Katie Bernhardt.

Short began life in Oklahoma but moved to Colorado with his family as a youngster. Upon completion of his education in Fort Collins he started working in construction and became a partner in several construction and development companies. Some of his projects included St. Lukes Episcopal Church and First Methodist Churches in Fort Collins and Messiah Lutheran Church in Longmont. He built many single family and multi-family residential units throughout Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and Texas.

Short loved to drive and his passion was collecting classic cars and taking road trips. Through the years he owned and restored numerous cars....all Fords.

Short loved to travel as long as it was by automobile to visit family and friends and to visit historical sights. His love of family was the glue that kept the families of his five older brothers always connected and his many nieces and nephews will miss him dearly as will his wife and children. He had numerous dear friends throughout the country who also feel the loss of this great soul. Short touched the lives of hundreds of people and all who knew him were enriched by his friendship.

“ Short gave me my first job as a contractor, painting houses in Windsor, I always loved seeing him drive around in that black ford lightning. Sorry to just read of his passing. My condolences to his family. He was always a pleasant person to be around.

“ Although known for his quietness, Short was a excellent Real Estate Contractor / Developer in addition to an expert Collector of Classic Cars and taught me a Great Deal about both. We will definitely miss him at our Annual Bohlender Picnics!
