

Richard Duane Stroh

March 26, 1933 - May 7, 2024

Richard Duane Stroh, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother, and friend to many passed away on May 8th, 2024 in his hometown of Fort Collins. He was born on March 26th, 1933 to loving parents and grew up surrounded by the beauty of Colorado.

Richard's life was one filled with adventure and accomplishment. After serving his country in the Navy during the Korean War, he pursued a successful career as a design engineer for IBM. His passion for aviation led him to become a skilled personal aircraft pilot who found joy in taking to the skies whenever he could. Richard also put his heart and soul into the renovation and construction of Red Feather Lakes', Chapel in the Pines.

In addition to his professional achievements and love for flying, Richard cherished time spent with family above all else. He married Lois Stroh and raised their daughter T Stroh with unwavering love and support. Richard took immense pride in being an involved father and later doted on his granddaughters Rebecca Frank and Jessica Frank as well as his great-grandchildren Kelsey Jinright, Joshwa Wilkerson, and Gabriel Albright.

Throughout his life Richard maintained ties with his sister Elaine Cox whom he shared countless memories with over the years. Their bond remained unbreakable through both joyful celebrations and difficult times.

Those who knew Richard will remember him not only for his professional accomplishments but also for his kind heartedness towards others. His warm smile would light up any room he entered while offering comfort to those around him during moments of need.

A man of strong faith whose values were deeply rooted in compassion; Richard leaves behind a legacy that will continue to inspire those who had the privilege of knowing him throughout their lives.

Services honoring Richard's remarkable life will be held at Bohlander Funeral Chapel on May 16th at noon followed by internment at Grandview Cemetery where he will rest peacefully alongside loved ones who have gone before him.

Though we mourn our loss deeply today we take solace in knowing that Richard is now reunited with those dear souls who preceded him into eternity.

May we find peace amidst our sorrow as we celebrate the extraordinary life lived by this exceptional man whose memory shall forever remain etched within our hearts.

“ Dick was a great guy. He helped me when I assumed Treasurer responsibilities from him after his many years of strong support and leadership for the Red Feather Chapel in the Pines. His knowledge of the facility and understanding of the construction and finances was excellent. I always appreciated his sense of humor, strong work ethic and consistent effort to make improvements for the Chapel. He made us feel welcome at the Chapel and we enjoyed a good number of discussions about his work at IBM and his life experiences in Colorado. He was a great guy, a gentleman and will be missed. RIP Dick, a life well lived, with solid faith and many contributions for others benefit. Dick was a great example of what our country needs more of these days in my opinion.
