“ *Ty and family, you have my condolences. Robbin wasn't my neighbor very long but I enjoyed having him next door. I have many good memories of him but the one that stands out most is how excited he was when I said he could park the corvette in my driveway. I know he loved having it nearby. God speed, Robbin. “ I worked with robin for 10 yrs,,his favorite saying to people in the barbershop was "it aint happening partner",,,,he was always laughing and telling good ole stories!!! I will miss this man the rest of my life until i see him again,,,,to his family i wish you comfort in knowing he was a loved man!!, we made a great team jn the shop!! He spoke highly of his family and his long departed wife!! I dont think he ever got over her love for him,,it was very deep! Best wishes from my heart to his family for your loss!! He was tough But he was fair. Good bye Robin,,see you soon,,just not yet!! Paul
