“ Robert was a fine friend and companion on many hunting and fishing trips and visits to El Buritto. He enjoyed life and was always attentive to the needs of others. We will miss him forever. Tom and Dee Vonder Haar

“ We made a pot of green chili today in Robert's honor. He and Susan fed us our first bowl and we have been making his recipe for 35 years. Robert sure did love to belly boat at Parvin back in the day, and I will see him boating in heaven, reeling in one beautiful trout after another. Robert lived his life with integrity, and on his own terms. He was always true to himself and his love for Susan, we will miss his spirit gracing this earth. Love, Margo and Bill Fickenscher

“ We met Robert and Susan in 2009 after we bought our summer home in Glacier View. They were welcoming and had great stories about the area. We loved Robert's sense of adventure. When we lost our homes in 2012 from the fire, Robert and Susan steered us towards their builder. Even after their huge loss, they were kind and giving.

Even now, it's hard to separate Robert and Susan. We often said them as one name, RobertSusan. That's how close they were.

We are sorry not to be able to make it for the celebration of life. We'll be thinking of Robert then and mentally hoisting a chile relleno in his honor.

“ To My Wonder Brother whom I shared your Life with,

I wish you only the very best on your latest Journey! I miss you every day! I miss your calls, I miss your laugh, I miss your lame jokes and I especially miss your, "Ugh Dubba"? You were my Best Friend that I could always talk to about EVERYTHING!! Charmae and I spent so many Wonderful Hours with you and your Loving Wife Susan!! You two are so In Love and inseparable! You two always did what you wanted to do no matter what others thought or said! You were the modern Bonnie and Clyde!! You designed and built your dream house on top of a mountain in Colorado! You loved food, liquor, beer, wine, fishing, hunting, shooting, creating iron sculptures and not in that order. You were always a FREE Spirit that I know so many respected. Your friends were numerous and always spoke highly of you by the way you treated them with mutual respect.

I pray that you are at peace with yourself, your family and your friends!!

*I wish you could have stayed longer because you owe me money!!!
Ok, I will just have to let this one slide!*

Thanks for all the great memories, friendship, teasing, fighting, joking and Love you showed me!

*Never say never because I'm sure I will see you again so I can collect my money,
"Ugh Robert"!*

Forever your Brother, Forever your Friend and Forever in my Heart!!!

"LOVE YOU BYE!!" As you always said!!

Love, Dubba
