He lived most of his life in Fort Collins but lived for 13 years in Phoenix, AZ in the 70's which is where he attended most of his schooling. He had nick names for all of them and they loved that as well. Also, lots of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. He was preceded in death by his dad, Joe and his younger sister, Patricia. He was a great husband, father, brother, uncle and friend. He made friends with everyone he met. He was the jokester of the family and the life of the party. You never knew what he would come up with. You always had to be on your toes with him. He will be dearly missed by all who new him. In lieu of flowers any memorial contributions can be made to Bohlender Funeral Chapel in memory of Robert Mondragon.
