Robert (Rob) D. Rummler

December 22, 1978 – October 10, 2015

Rob Rummler, age 36, passed away Saturday, October 10, 2015. Rob is survived by his parents, Steve and Sandy Rummler and his brother, Mike (Annette) and many aunts and uncles and cousins.

Growing up in Steamboat Springs, he learned to ski at an early age, but snowboarding became his great love. Even though he experienced a traumatic brain injury on the slopes in 1996 that changed his life forever, he continued to snowboard every chance he got.

Rob was a student at Front Range Community College studying computer technology.

He previously lived in Moab, UT, where he pursued his passions of hiking and biking and worked as an outdoor guide and mechanic.

Memorial services will be held on Saturday, October 24, 2015, 2 p.m. in the Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 West Olive, Fort Collins, CO.

If desired, memorials may be made to the National Parkinson Foundation at www.parkinson.org or the Steve Rummler Hope Foundation, PO Box 24773, Minneapolis, MN 55424.

“ I only knew Robbie as a little boy when I babysat him and his brother at their house in Steamboat. He was a sweet kid and was far easier to put to bed than his brother was. We had a lot of fun together and I always looked forward to the time I spent with the two of them. My thoughts are with you, Steve, Sandy and Mike.

“ Sandy, Steve, and Mike.

I was very shocked to hear about Rob's passing. He was a great guy and will truly be missed. I thought about him today as I was riding my bike and felt a warmth come over me and believe he is at peace.

My heart and condolences go out to you.

Sincerely,

Andy Benton
