“ Shirley and Lori and family: Our sincere sympathy in your loss. I have always considered Bob a very good friend someone who always could be depended on}. The tribute to Bob was very memorable at todays memorial. We pray you will remember the good times and be grateful for having had him these past years. He was a pleasure to work with many years ago and I feel blessed to have had him as a friend. Lois, Denise and Debbie join me in sending condolences to your family. Vern Schillig
