“ Columbine North Shore will not be the same without Bob. He was always sharing his candy, his humor, and his caring with all of us who work and/or live at North Shore. He always took time with other residents who were feeling down or confused. His smile and big heart will be sorely missed. With Sincere Sympathy, Lynn R. St.John, CNA

“ One of the first times Grandpa met Ben we went to Cripple Creek, CO to do what Grandpa loves; gamble. On the way home, he started talking to Ben, "You got snakes down in Albuquerque?" I will never forget how he could strike up a conversation with anyone and make everyone smile and laugh. I miss him and will see him again one day. I love you Grandpa!
