

Rodney Lynn Wilms

April 15, 1966 - January 26, 2022

Rodney Lynn Wilms 04/15/66 - 01/26/22

Rodney Wilms was loved by so many; family, friends, town folk. His three children, Rodney, Nikkole, and Nikki, were very close to their father, and share many memories. Rodney enjoyed doing many activities with his family, such as fishing and going boating at Horsetooth Lake. Taking rides on his Harley with his girls, son, and brother were always very relaxing and freeing for Rodney. Something about the crisp wind and fast bike made Rodney uncontrollably happy. Rodney's brother Rick shared many memories as well. Call Of Duty was a challenging, yet appealing, activity the brothers shared interest on. Running around with firearms and protecting each other at any given chance was pretty captivating. Rodney also shared a very giving and caring relationship with Kelly, his girlfriend. Three years wasn't quite long enough with a lover, but appreciated and accepted more than anything.

Rodney Lynn was a very inclined individual. Turning rocks into gold, he could sure fix or create anything. He was a certified technician in the oil industry, and had a very broad spectrum of knowledge in many other fields. Vehicles, contracting, or life lessons, he could answer any question.

Rodney has two grandchildren that he loved, cherished, and lived by. Sitting on the tailgate of his truck, eating crackers and riding bikes with his grandson

Oryn, and listening to all of the fun and interesting things Willow was constantly bringing to Rodney's attention, brought the brightest smiles to to his face. Playing and laughter ran their evenings. Rodney was always there for his grandkids, weather it be taking timeouts with them on the couch to make Oryn feel better, or eating the toy broccoli Willow and he shared at tea time. He was always their for his little people.

With all of the memories and mezmorizing times Rodney shared with his family and friends, we will all have him in our hearts forever. Sharing his recollection for years to come. We love you dad.

Condolences can be sent to 1815 Greengate Drive Fort Collins 80526.

Going to really miss his smiles and ornery mischief shining in his eyes. The family fishing trips and all those nights playing hide and seek tag in the neighborhood. Blessings and love Cousin! So proud of you!

“ All the years I had you as my teacher, father, brother, and friend. Seems only like just moments now that your gone. I know your not suffering anymore and living the best life with God and our other passed loved ones but still part of me wishes you here to enjoy all that this mortal world has to offer! I will always carry you in my heart and mind with me on all my walks of life dad. I love you and will see you again!

“ I first met Rod in 2003 in Cheyenne Wells, CO. I worked with him at the Sheriff's Office there. He became one of my best friends. We shared many laughs, a few tears, a lot of soul searching conversations and insight into the world around us. He was a beautiful soul and helped me so much during my years out there. I will miss him so much. RIP my wonderful friend, you have earned it.
