“ I think of all of you and remember the many good times we have shared over the span of my life time. I remember the time I saw a child eating a raw cucumber and threw it out of his hand because I was always told they were poison if you ate them without soaking them in salt. The mother of the child let me know in short order to get away and leave him alone. Later I learned that it was Ok to eat them right off the vine. There are too many other great memories to print but most of all you have my love and sympathy for losing a very nice Uncle to me. Love Clara

“ I often think of Roscoe, at Kip and Trevor's basketball and soccer games. He did not miss a game for many years. The best was Roscoe and Esther dancing on the High School stage five years ago during Trevor's performance at a talent show. Trevor won, not because of his singing skills, but because of grandparents showing the love. Roscoe loved the kids. He will be missed however never forgotten.
