“ My parents live at Sterling House and I had the pleasure of first meeting Rosella at her 90th birthday party. From that time on, she always had a big smile and greeted me so pleasantly whenever I saw her. I will always remember her kindness and her bright smile-- we will miss her at Sterling House. I extend my deepest sympathy to all of her family.

“ I first met Rosella when she was living in Sterling House assisted living. She and my mother shared a dining room table. I visited with her many times and enjoyed it very much. She was a very wonderful woman and I know you will miss her. My mother passed away last August. I had moved her to a smaller assisted living facility in Feb 2012.
