She was a member of First Baptist Church where she prayed to ask Jesus Christ to take over her life. She enjoyed sharing about Christ anywhere, anytime, to anybody. She was a graduate of Bible Study Fellowship and led many women in Bible Studies, and spoke at Christian Women's Club and other women's gatherings.

She is survived by her daughter, Suzan and son-in-law, Stephen Philpott; twin grandsons, Wesley and Bradley; and great grand-daughter, Ashley; son, Daniel and wife, Karen; granddaughters, Courtney, Katie, and Laura Winifred; and grandsons, Brandon and Aaron. Courtney is married to Calvin Banks and has twin boys, Bryce and Ryan; and daughter, Tiffany.

Contributions can be made to American Missionary Fellowship or Hospice. Condolence messages and contributions may be sent in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524. Janet had this written out before her death so these are the highlights of her life that she wanted remembered.
