“ Scott has touched more lives than anyone I know. I am proud to call him my best friend. Scott has been there for the most important parts of my life. He was there when I met my wife, he was my best man, and he was there in Texas for my first born son. He was always a rock during the college years living together we grew leaps and bounds together and mostly by his guidance. I will miss him dearly, but I know he is happy and with his Mom, Dad and sisters once again. We will all hold down the camping spot until we meet again. Love You Scott. May God Bless You.

“ I miss Scott. He was a friend that I could count on for an honest answer, or a kind word when needed. He encouraged me in several endeavors in my life, and was not shy about putting me in my place when I needed it, which, seemed to be quite often. We were roommates, camping buddies, and partners in crime. I will miss his smile, and his laugh. I will miss the way he lit up every conversation he was involved in, and the strength he showed when faced with adversity. He inspired me in several ways that he will never know. I just hope to see him again, so we can pick up where we left off. Happy camping, buddy.

“ Scott was one of the first friends I met when we moved to Sheeley Drive. I remember walking home from the bus stop, riding our cool Stingrays around the neighborhood, and going to Bennett, Belevins, and Rocky. It was good to connect again on facebook these last several years. The world lost a remarkable man.

“ Though I haven't known Scott all that long, what I did know about him is he was kind, helpful and had some real good wisdom that he willingly shared with me. I regret NOT staying in better touch with him as this has come as quite a shock. May all his family and friends experience the deep love, comfort and grace from God and may all your memories be good ones. We will all miss you!

“ I am sad not only for the loss of Scott, but that I didn't spend more time with him. We have a Clock Chime in our living room that he gave Sandi and I on our wedding day. It has chimed on the hour every hour for the past 19 years. We call it the Swells O Meter. I think of him every time it goes off and will continue to do so. As said by someone earlier, my life is enriched knowing Scott Wells. And to my friends that I don't spend enough time with, we need to get together more often. I will miss you Scotty!

“ Scott and I were friends in high school. He could always make me laugh. We were in the musical our senior year and had such a blast. We lost touch and then reconnected at our high school reunions and then on Facebook. He was so very kind, caring and, of course, funny. He will be missed! My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. Lisa Martin

“ Scott, I and my family will miss you. You were my best friend ever since growing up across the street from eachother. Yes we had our spats.I remember a rock throwing one in particular. But we remained friends. I will always remember your laugh, very high pitch. I will remember your happy go lucky attitude. I know you are in a better place and now you get to spend some time with Mom and Dad. You lived a blessed life and a very successful life. I'll see you on the other side someday. I hear the camping is better up there. Love, your "brother" Bob

“ I am so sad for myself and everyone that had the pleasure of knowing Scott. He was one of the most genuinely "good guys", for lack of a better term, that I have ever known. He was a good friend to many. I can still see that smile and hear that onery laugh. My life is better for having known him.
