

Serapio Baca

November 27, 1929 - October 30, 2016

Serapio Baca passed away peacefully, surrounded by his family on October 30, 2016. Serapio was born November 27, 1929, in Dawson, New Mexico to Serapio Baca and Aurora Cordero. He moved to Fort Collins in July 1967. Together, he and his wife, Rosie raised 13 children.

Serapio enjoyed taking walks, feeding the squirrels at the Fort Collins Library, but most of all he enjoyed spending time with his family, he always said that he felt that he was the richest man alive because of his family.

Serapio is survived by his children: Serapio G. Baca (Fort Collins), Raymond Baca (Phoenix, AZ), Patricia Reyna (Fort Collins), Virginia Baca-Devens (Fort Collins), Susan Steshyn (Tom) (Fort Collins), Diana Baca-Ragin (Herman) (Fort Collins), Marianne Morales (Marti) (Henderson, CO), David Baca (Wendy) (Loveland, CO), Christine Baca (Phoenix, AZ), Edward Baca (Fort Collins), Nancy Baca (Fort Collins) and his very special niece, Carmen Valdez and her family. He is also survived by 29 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great-grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, siblings; his son, Johnny; and daughter, Dorothy.

A special thanks to the staff at Lemay Avenue Health and Rehab and to Dr. David Schmidt and staff at Associates in Family Medicine for all the excellent care that has been provided.

“ No one will ever know the love that a daughter has for her Father. For me I am sure it started from the first look that was shared when I was born and continued throughout my life. I am so thankful for every moment, every talk, every hug. every kiss. Watching you die was the hardest thing I have ever gone through. I would have done anything to take away your pain. I find myself crying because I know that although you will always be in my heart and in my memories I won't get a hug or see those eyes looking back at me. I am thankful that you shared a special moment as I told you I loved you and you looked at me and nodded your head twice. That will be a memory that has to last forever. Only God knows the relationship you had with each of your children. I thank you for all my memories and for the love you showed me, all that you have taught me. I am who I am because of your love. I cannot even think of one bad memory or unkind word we shared. You are my Dad now and forever. Thank you for a beautiful Daughter Father relationship I will love you forever Daddy. Your daughter Diana your llanta I loved every moment of it.

Me and you shared a lot of love and some very special time together, I wouldn't change any of it. I will treasure the memories for the rest of my life. I love you and miss you and Mom so much. I know that you and Mom will watch and protect me from up above, as you both are my SPECIAL ANGELS. I love both of you, your daughter Tina* “ Always know that I love you. I prayed that you would always be with us. I knew it was time to let you go when I saw how tired you were. I will miss the expression you had on your face when I would do something silly. It was priceless, just like you. I will miss going to the 730 am mass with you and sister Virginia. I will stay strong like the man you were. I will forever hold you in my heart and love you forever. Rest In Peace Dad. Love your daughter Marianne E. Baca
