“ I didn't know your mother Jennifer but I know you and your beautiful family. She had to have been one smart, sensitive, caring and loving woman for she passed these precious traits onto you. Know that my heart and thoughts are with you. Much love and hugs!

“ Sharon and Dee and I were pretty close growing up, we always at her house ar mine. Grndma lived with us so we saw them often. I remember riding the train frm Hayward and staying in Spooner often.

Greatest time was the spring when we would sneak into the fish hatchery and catch polywogs and little tiny tiny frogs, or were they toads? We would fill a coffee can with them, and play with them, don't remember what we did with them after that. we couldn't bring them into the house.

We wrote often when she moved and Mike was the love of her life for sure. Then we kinda lost track until this darn Facebook, She left this world all too soon.

Rest in Peace Sharon, \
Cousin Cheryl
