

Shirley Maxine Goff

October 3, 2013 - July 7, 2013

Shirley Maxine Goff, the daughter of Chris and Doris Schrader, was born October 3, 1922, in Bloomfield, Nebraska. She passed away at home, surrounded by her family, on July 7, 2013. Survivors are her three children, Mike Maggie Goff, Mary Pat Ditzel and Mindy Goff Fosdick. She also is survived by four grandchildren, Jen Jackson, Kara Sample Cory, Brent Fosdick, and Holly Fosdick. Shirley, Mom, Granny, Grandma grew up in Nebraska, where she met the love of her life, Bill Goff, in first grade. They were married June 8, 1944. Shirley and Bill started a life together in Fort Collins, where they owned Aggie Market, which they later turned into Aggie Liquor. Mom was the bookkeeper for their business. Not only was Shirley the bookkeeper for Aggie Market/Aggie Liquor, she was a devoted wife, mother and homemaker! Her life was her family and she always made our house a "Home". She was a Cub Scout and Campfire Girl leader, member of the PTA, and Sunday school teacher. Shirley will be greatly missed by her children and grandchildren. She always had a great big hug, a story to tell, a favorite meal to cook and an understanding heart. What wonderful memories she has left us! She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Bill; and brother, Bob Sug Schrader. The family would like to thank Visiting Angels and Front Range Hospice for their wonderful care, which enabled Mom to be able to pass away comfortably at home. Every Angel and Hospice representative had a special place in her heart - she loved all of you. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Front Range Hospice in care of Bohlender

Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524. Friends may send condolences to the family at bohlenderfuneralchapel.com. A private memorial service will be held at a later date.
