

Stacey M. Procopio

October 19, 1970 - January 19, 2017

Stacey Michael Procopio, aged 46, died peacefully on January 19, 2017, at home in Johnstown Colorado, shortly after losing her husband, Anthony Joseph Procopio. Stacey was born October 6, 1970, in Houston, Texas; the daughter of Chester Harmon and Betty Murdock.

Stacey thoroughly enjoyed helping others and creating memories with her large family. She was always center stage as she took on every possible task to better the lives of her friends and family. Stacey hosted several wedding parties and was famous for her tea parties where she would gather friends and family in loud nights filled with snacks and board games. She focused throughout her life on this singular goal, helping others, and through this created a family of 5 boys and 1 daughter through 26 years of motherhood. Stacey's greatest accomplishment was that of a stay at home mom where she served tirelessly to make her children happy and ensure their success.

In 1998, Stacey married the love of her life, Anthony Joseph Procopio, and through his subsequent promotions at Holcim, Inc. could live across the United States, from Colorado to South Carolina and back. It is key to note that family was always the principle concern of both Stacey and Anthony and spent the clear majority of their time doting upon their children.

In addition to raising their 6 children she also taught preschool for family friends and actively volunteered in the local elementary schools. She served many roles within the LDS church and lastly as Relief Society Secretary Assistant where she greatly enjoyed helping the women of the church.

Stacey is survived by her brother, David Harmon and sons; Wesley Lumpkin of Johnstown, CO, Chris Procopio of Provo, UT, Johnathon Procopio of Johnstown, CO, Anthony (Dougie) Procopio of Johnstown, CO, and Carson Procopio of Johnstown, CO; and a number of other relatives and close friends. Stacey has returned to be with her husband, Anthony Joseph Procopio, and daughter, Cecilia Mary Procopio.

Viewing will be held from 12:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Friday at Bohlender Funeral Chapel. A Funeral Service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday at Bohlender Funeral Chapel. Interment Grandview Cemetery.

“ Dear Stacey's People,

My daughters, Molly and Erin, and I have (mostly) fond memories of so many fundraising events in Wellington with Stacey, Wesley, and Christopher.

I wrote an 2009 article about Johnathon's "Courage Park" dedication and just happened upon it yesterday, as a matter of fact, before I even knew Stacey had died. In it, I quoted Johnathon as saying this about confronting his own death: "Cool! Now I'll get to see what Jesus really looks like!"

Oh, Stacey! I hope your journey home has been beautiful - just like you. Today, by the way, is the sixth anniversary of my own mother's passing, guys. Sigh.

*Love,
Brenda Rader Mross*

“ If you ever had an opportunity to meet Stacey, odds are that you remember her. Because Stacey was one of those unforgettable 'characters' that lived life out loud and you always knew just where she stood on pretty much any topic. She had a unique laugh that I swear you could hear a block away and she was funny, always making people laugh. She was a fan of tea, the theater and picnics. She loved to play games, cook and especially throw a party! She could be so kind and generous that you'd just be dumbstruck, but God help whoever would mess with one of her kids as she was as fierce and as protective a Mama bear as ever I met. She loved her family above all else. Her husband was the love of her life and her boys... they were her heart and she was so proud of them. She talked of them constantly and they were her top priority. And they are great boys, the result of a caring, loving mother. I'm so heart broken for the family and for our community that we've lost this vibrant soul. She was my friend and a significant part of my life for several years and I loved her. I've prayed for her for years and now I pray for healing comfort for her family and anyone feeling her loss. Rest well, Stacey, and know that you are missed and will never be forgotten.

“ Stacey, seeing your picture here makes this real. How I wish it were not. I wanted to say thanks. Thank you for the good times and the sad times. Thank you for letting me be your friend when I was in need. As a new mother moving far from home and not knowing anything about Fort Collins, or the people there, you were a God send, a tender mercy sent specially to me. I would like to share a few of the memories I hold dear. Your High Teas were spot on, the food was delish (I still crave your ham, dill cream cheese, apricot jam, croissant sandwiches) and your conversation the highlight of the event. You loved to take pictures, you have TONS of them, but you hated to be in a photo. I remember a trip to Denver. We went to the zoo, the Denver Mint, and Casa Bonita. After eating at Casa Bonita we went to get in the Suburban to leave and were hit up for cash... seconds later we heard gun shots. We survived the encounter, but barely. If I remember right you said something about how you did not realize the area had turned so ghetto! I dare say your Halloween party was the only time Tyler dressed up in any way in his adult life. You, Anthony, and Dougie, taking us on the train. I remember the way Anthony would say “#1 Chinese super buffet” it was perfect! Speaking of Anthony, you two were are the perfect match. There have been many times that I thought you two fit together so well, sole mates. Among some of my favorite memories are the ones where we talked about anything and everything. No topic was really off limits, and laughing was infectious. In fact we shared many political conversations around your table with the infamous Christopher, those were always memorable. I also remember the emotionally difficult hospital visit after Cecilia was born, there was hope mingled with uncertainty. How that time left a hole in your heart. I have already taken up too much space here, but I wanted to thank you for the greatest honor of my life. You asked me to be your escort to receive your endowments in the Salt Lake City temple. What a special honor for me. It will be a memory I will carry with me forever. May Heavenly Father be with Grandma Betty, those small boys Carson and Dougie, and those older rascals Jonathan, Christopher, and Wesley, as well as the rest of your family and loved ones where ever they may be. Hold Anthony tight *and Cecilia even tighter, for we know you are with them and our loving Heavenly Father and Jesus. Until we meet again, dear friend.

Amber.*
