

Stacy Lynn Quick

March 31, 1966 - April 23, 2023

Stacy Lynn (Carlstrom) Quick (57) passed away Sunday, April 23, 2023, surrounded by family. Stacy was born March 31, 1966, to Terry Carlstrom and Ann (Williams) Carlstrom in Laramie, Wyo.

She grew up on the Lone Pine Ranch in Walden, Colo., which was homesteaded by her great-grandfather in the early 1900s. Growing up on the ranch with grandparents, uncles, aunts, cousins, friends and family brought a deep sense of heritage to her life which she passed on to her family.

Stacy graduated from North Park Junior–Senior High School and received her Bachelor’s degree from the University of Wyoming. Stacy became a teacher in Walden, then moved to Craig with her family. She later became the office manager for Cross Mountain Ranch in Craig and Hamilton.

Stacy was a devoted mother, grandmother and friend. She gave freely, even when she had little herself and brought joy and comfort to those around her.

Stacy was preceded in death by her father, Terry.

Stacy is survived by her mother, Ann Carlstrom of Walden, Colo.; brother, Scott Carlstrom and (wife) Sue House of Mancos, Colo.; sister, Spring and (husband) Wes Reddick and their daughter Morgan of Longmont, Colo.;

daughter, Treann Quick and (husband) Leo Kullman of Indianapolis, Ind.; son, Trevor and (wife) Taylor Quick and their children Oliver, Parker, Logan and August of Craig, Colo. Also surviving are many friends and relatives who will miss her dearly.

Services will be held at the North Park Community Church, 509 McKinley Drive, Walden, Colo., Saturday, May 6, 2023, at 2 p.m. Stacy's ashes will be spread at a later date.
