“ I just learned of Susan's death. Although I never met her in person, she had been an online friend for years. She was one of the funniest, kindest people and I will miss her. May God provide the family with comfort and love.

“ I met Suan at Poudre R-1. We grew up not very far apart in MA.Maybe that's why we clicked right away.We were both quiet, sweet and demurerightSusan was the kind of person that even if you did not see her for a long time,it felt like you had just spoken.Susan provided lots of listening to me which is probably why her hearing went out. We shared lots of laughs and a few drinks together.One night too many.The next morning,I got up and went to work.She promised she would, but stayed home "sick."Every time I bent over to put something in the filing cabinet the room would spin around.She loved it. She was also responsible for upgrading the toilet paper in the ladies'room in the admin building from those little tiny squares.We all loved her for that. Our kids spent lots of time together and we all had fun.She's up there watching over everything and hopefully putting in a good word for me.Corey and Andy - she was so proud of you. Her grandkids were her life.They will never forget her.

“ Whenever we visited our kids and grandkids in CO, Susan made it a point to come to see us. We had many laughs together about life and family and I truly love and miss her. She was the best grandmother ever....she said what was on her mind...I admired her spirit! Our visits will not be the same without her.

“ What a beautiful service yesterday! The family's and the minister's words brought Susan's spirit into that moment in a wonderful and sweet way. It felt very healing to all be together, to remember and cherish Susan's life through the words, the pictures, and the presence of each person who had come to participate. We will always remember Susan's smile, her great laugh, her love, and her open hearted way of welcoming us into her life and family.

“ My sincere condolences to Susan's family. I worked with Susan at Poudre R-1 and will always remember her wonderful sense of humor and her laugh, and the caring person she was. I will miss her emails and her Christmas cards which always included a sparkly ornament, which I think reflected her sparkly personality. She will be missed.

“ Susan taught me calligraphy years ago. We had such good times during those lessons. Her laughter was beautiful and her humor was delightful. I always left her house feeling uplifted. Her outlook on loosing her hearing gave me determination to change mine, as I was also loosing my hearing at that time. She inspired me by the way she faced life. I was fortunate to know Susan\=
