“ Your family has my deepest sympathy. I know the pain from Sydonia's passing must seem unbearable. Nevertheless, you are not left to bear it alone. Psalm 46:1 says, God is our refuge and strength, a hope that is readily found in times of distress. So pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. He will really help you Isaiah 41:10.

“ My prayers and deepest sympathies go out to her family. Sydonia was one of my older cousins. For a short time during one Summer, she babysat me and understood my love for horses. I'm 57 now and she would still call me by one of my nicknames, "Shorty-Bug." I have a great respect for her energy and for the care she gave her mother and her family. She will be missed.
