“ Tom was a great friend to our family. After my Dad's death, he regularly checked on my mom and our family. He was a kind, generous, and helpful man. He was particularly helpful to us when I took on the challenge of selling my Dad's antique car collection after his death. Tom was greatly appreciated by all in the DeLozier family in Fort Collins.

“ My father and I played pool with Tom quite frequently at the Senior Center before 2015. He was a good player and I appreciated the friendship he extended to my father. He was an affable person, and spoke well of his own family too.

“ As neighbors, we shared laughter and conversation. Tom was always ready and willing to share his knowledge and love of cars, especially his 1932 Ford Victoria.
