“ Lundstedt Family: The few times I got to hang out with your family, I was struck by how happy everyone was. I know Sid spoke often of your family and always with fondness. Having been through the loss of a loved one, I know there are no words that will help ease your pain. I hope you can find peace in your memories and comfort in knowing he's hangin' out up there with some good people to keep him company until he sees you all again! Sending you a big hug and much love! ~LeAnn

“ News of Tyler's death reached me a couple days ago. I grieve with you. Tyler and I had a great conversation last summer at Anson Jr.'s wedding party. I was impressed by his maturity and self assurance. It was the first time I had interacted with Tyler alone, without Gerry or his brothers there. I got a glimpse of the fine young man he had become. I'm so sad that was to be our last chance. He was my kind of man, competent, adventurous and hard working. But also kind and sensitive. Please know that Tyler will be missed greatly, by a great many. My love and condolence to you all. Mark

“ Tyler was always so funny and could make anyone laugh with his goofy personality! He was best friends with Jordan and I remember one day we were all hanging out in his backyard with Mike Despain and they were all riding bikes. They were all having such a good time! He loved doing things like that and being with friends! I have lots of fond memories of Tyler, dances in high school, his love for cars, bikes, the mountains and his handsome smile with those bright blue eyes. : Love you Tyler! ~Becka
