“ Vic I still can't believe you have moved on. My closet friend for 40 years. I will always remember the good times we had and the laughter our families shared over the years We shared each other grief when our children died. This year you spent the Lords birthday with him. I will never forget you.

“ Irma & Family - We were very sorry to hear about Vic. We met years ago when he started doing our taxes. We had a lot in common being retired Army. I always enjoyed meeting with him and going out to breakfast after the tax returns were finished. We had some long conversations about all kinds of topics. Vic was never shy about voicing his opinions. I missed those get togethers after he quit doing the taxes. He was a unique individual. Please accept our condolences. Dave & Sharon Betters
