

Virginia L. Boggess

November 1, 1914 - May 25, 2013

Born on the eastern plains of Colorado to Ira and Pearl Kyger, Virginia Leota attended schools in Dailey and Haxtun and worked on the family farm. She met James W. Boggess in Denver and they married March 5, 1936. Three children were born to this union. Her family was her life; she was a fabulous cook, loyal friend, a quintessential lady never without rouge and lipstick — even if doing laundry! She doted lovingly on her 5 grandchildren, spoiling and loving them unconditionally; she equally delighted in her 9 great-grandchildren. She was actively involved in her church, volunteering, and crafting. She and Jim enjoyed traveling in retirement and lived several years in Sun City, Arizona. She moved to Fort Collins after his passing in 1989, devoting herself to family and new friends in her adopted home. She was a member of First United Methodist Church and Circle Vashti. She was a sweet, gracious, and generous woman who will be remembered tenderly. We were so blessed by her presence. She is survived by children, Bev Newton-Moore Jack of Fort Collins; Jim Boggess, Jr. Glenda of Longmont, and Becky Anderson of Midland Texas. Grandchildren, Jim Lynn; Stacey Steve; Pat Denise; Audrey Warren, and Nicole. Great Grandchildren, Lindsay and Brandy; Steven, Darby and Taylor; Kaitlin, Brayden, Taylor, and Brianna. Sister, Emilie Fulfer of Roswell, NM. Preceding her in death were husband, Jim; special friend, George Ecret; son-in-law, Arnie Newton; parents; and 3 brothers. No flowers please; if you so choose, gift your favorite cause or charity in celebration memory of her long and happy life. The family offers special thanks to the staff and caregivers of Columbine West Health & Rehab. We are so grateful for the compassionate and gentle care she received in your hands. A memorial service will be held at 10:00 a.m., Monday, June 3, 2013 at the First United Methodist Church Chapel, 1005 Stover.

I have just found this post. I knew Virginia as her first daughter in law. I lived her the first day i met her and even now grieve at her passing. To me she was a mother and the epitome of a wife, mother, friend and grandmother. I miss her terribly and will always , always be grateful she graced my life .
