“ I’ve known Jinny since high school, and for years she was part of my family. She and I had many wonderful times together, visiting them in Monterey, San Diego, Manhattan Beach, watching her kids growing, making pizza at their house, amazing barbecues. And laughing...laughing a lot!

When times got rocky and we were separated, I saw her only seldom, I know she had a singular, powerful Faith and found security in her Church and her God. But she never lost her humor, her infectious laugh, and her love for her kids. She remained a delight to see and chat with.

Good bye, Jinny. I will miss you.

*With love,
Michael*
