

Virginia Chynoweth

March 20, 1931 - December 1, 2016

Virginia Chynoweth was born March 20, 1931 in the small farming town of Macon, Illinois. She passed quietly on December 1, 2016 in Littleton Colorado. Virginia lived a full life. She lived in her home town of Macon, IL until 1966 when she moved to live in Greensboro, NC near her sister Dorothy. In the mid-1970s Virginia moved to be near her brother Bill in the Denver Colorado area. In 1995 she moved into the Libby Bortz facility in Littleton Colorado as one of their first residents. She was well known for helping with social activities and had many friends there. Virginia loved games and animals, especially dogs, and was very artistic creating some lovely paintings. Virginia loved watching the birds outside of her windows at Brookdale in Littleton and frequent outings with her friend Sheila. Virginia was last able to visit her hometown of Macon in 2011 and will return there for internment. Virginia was preceded in passing by her parents, Ray and Irene Chynoweth; her beloved sister and brother in law Dorothy and Pete Schroeder and her loving brother Bill Chynoweth and his wife Ruth. Virginia is survived by her caring Nephew Mark Chynoweth, his wife Kathy and her loving Nieces Mary Dee Chynoweth Trammell; Meg Overbey and her husband Allan; and Marty Miller and her husband Chuck; 19 nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews and dear cousins Bud and Judy Bromley. Through the ups and downs of her life, Virginia remained one of the toughest yet sweetest woman you could know.
