“ Sending prayers and love to the family of Waldo. He was a inspiration to every life he touched. While the time I was blessed to know him was short his memory will forever be in my heart. I will miss his stories of life and adventure, watching him checking the temperature for his daily "walk" around the property. The care, love and devotion he had for his wife while he carefully selected her a snack for his visit with her. The excitement when he would win candy at bingo and his caring heart when he shared his winnings with others who did not win... Heaven gained a true angel and he will forever remain in our hearts with beautiful memories. God bless the Young family and friends of Waldo.

*With sympathy,
Aimee French and Family*
