

William D. Bartran

November 14, 1933 - August 19, 2010

William Dallas Bartran a pillar in the Fort Collins community passed away August 19th, 2010 in his home surrounded by family. Bill was born on November 14, 1933 in Lyman, Nebraska to the parents of William E. Bartran and Thelma Richardson. Most of his childhood was spent growing up in Grand Lake, Colorado, where he enjoyed earning his title of Eagle Scout. He later moved to Fort Collins where he was a graduate of Fort Collins High School. He was a member of the Colorado Aggies basketball team and a graduate of the Colorado State University. Bill served in the Air force as a navigational pilot prior to beginning his career as a home builder. Following in the footsteps of his father he established a home building business – Bartran Homes Inc. For over 40 years he has created many neighborhoods throughout the Fort Collins, community and was well known for his quality and craftsmanship for the homes he built. He was passionate about creating not just houses but homes families truly loved. Bill also began one of the first sod farms in northern Colorado known as Turf Master Ltd. He was respected throughout the business community and among his sub contractors and customers as a man of integrity, honesty, and a strong work ethic. Bill was very active in the Fort Collins community. He was involved in numerous city committees, charities, an active member of the Northern Colorado Association of Home Builders, served on the United Bank Board of Directors for over 23 years, and was a member of the Fort Collins Elks Lodge. Bill married Nancy J. Weinland in Fort Collins in 1959 and raised four wonderful children together. As active members of the community they enjoyed social and charity events, traveling, skiing, and camping. In 1993 Bill retired from home building and became a cowboy which was a lifelong dream. The many years he spent on Table Mountain Ranch were some of his happiest times. He loved sharing its beauty with his family and friends. Bill loved to ski, fish, garden, camp, golf, travel, and cherished his close friends, but his greatest pride was in his family. He is survived by his daughters, Cris Silkman of Draper, Utah, LeeAnn Mill of Loveland, Colorado, Michele Mosner of Princeton, New Jersey; and his son, Dan Bartran of Fort Collins, Colorado; 18 grand children, and 4 great grand children. We welcome everyone to his celebration of life service Wednesday, August, 25 2010 at 2:00pm. The service will be held at Timberline Church in Fort Collins. In lieu of flowers charitable contributions can be made to Fort Collins United Way or Habitat for Humanity in his name.

“ Michele, Dan. LeeAnn, Cris, Nancy & Family, Fun memories of time spent with your family often pop up in my head & I was thinking of you last night. I wanted to let Bill know how much he impacted my life - I didn't know of his passing until today. Growing up in Ft Collins, many of my family members and friends lived in Bartran homes/neighborhoods. It wasn't until my friendship with Michele at FCHS that I found out what "Bartran home" meant & the energy, passion & dedication Bill had for each home/homeowner. I'll always remember Bill for his down to earth mannerisms, free spirit, genuine kindness / huge heart and authenticity. He & Nancy unknowingly inspired me to pursue my career in design/architecture/construction. Bill, keep on being a cowboy Best to the Bartran Family always, Dana

“ Dear Bartran Family: I was saddened by the death of Bill and will never forget the fun we shared and my memories of him being my best friend through junior high and high school. Probably the most memorable event we shared was being a part of the FCHS 1950 state champion football team. Bill played left end and I played right end. They didn't have tight ends and wide receivers in those days. Everyone played both ways; offense and defense. He was a real athlete, particularly excelling in basketball. We lost touch during the last 60 years but that doesn't erase my fond memories of him. Gods blessings. Jim and Carleen Dodson

“ On behalf of all of us here at Fort Collins Habitat for Humanity, I would like to wish my sincere condolences to the family. Bill was a kind and generous man of great character. When I first came as Executive Director at Fort Collins Habitat 10 years ago, Bill was the very first person to call me and tell me he wanted to make a donation--of sod!! Many Habitat homes have beautiful yards thanks to Bill's generosity. He was a great builder and as the obit said, "a pillar in our community." He will be greatly missed.

“To the Bartran family: Your father built my first beautiful home ever and was there through every step of the process. He was also a long-time patron of Cellular Junction and it was always my privilege and pleasure to work with him. Indeed he was one of a kind and has left an indelible impression on my heart. Having not long ago lost my pillar of a father, I empathize and am truly sorry for your loss. I hope you will be able to focus on your time with him and how very lucky you were to have had him in your lives. His life lessons and spirit will be with you always. “ We are saddened to learn of Bill's passing. I have known Bill since Colo A & M days and worked with him on many of his projects over the years. He always had a smile on his face and went our of his way to help others. In his cowboy years he would call and we would visit about Real Estate. I believe Bill created a legacy as a builder and developer that tops them all. As a Commercial real estate appraiser I can not think of anyone that I respect more than Bill. Bill will be truly missed by all. Rosalie and I are traveling by motorhome back from Alaska and will not be able to attend the services on August 25. Best Wishes to the Family Jerry & Rosalie Moore
