

William Willbanks

December 6, 2011

William "Bill" Willbanks, 80, loving husband of Joyce, was called home to our Lord on Tuesday, December 6, 2011. He is survived by his three grown children; Rick Willbanks, Sherrie Johnson Jerry, and Mel Eustrom-Abbott Dan; eight grandchildren, Nick, Brittany, Nicole, Erika, Jake, Luke, Chance and Jackson; seven great grandchildren, Skyla, Tate, Gracie, Lainey, Isabelle, Cameron, Melania; one brother and four sisters; a sister-in-law, Betty Romer; and numerous nieces and nephews. Bill was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, two sisters and a daughter-in-law, Lani. Bill retired from Mountain Bell after 27 ½ years of service and had since enjoyed spending time with his family and friends. A Celebration of Bill's Life will be held on Monday, December 19, 2011 at 12:00 pm at Club Tico, City Park.

Tribute Wall

CP

“Joyce' I am so sorry for your loss but know we are there for you whenever you need us. here's a poem I thought you might like. Miss Me But Let Me Go - Unknown
When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set on me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little--but not too long, and not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared, miss me--but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we know. And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds, miss me--but let me go. Colleen & Dory

Collen Pettit - December 13, 2011 at 12:00 AM